

Welcome to Philosophy, Religion and Ethics

Starter - Give examples of how you can be kind to each other.

STRETCH! Why is it important to be kind to each other?

What do we do in Philosophy, Religion and Ethics?

In the Philosophy, Religion and Ethics department we celebrate diversity, this means celebrating people's differences!

Throughout your lessons in Philosophy, Religion and Ethics you will learn about different cultures around the world and what makes them special.

Learning Objectives

- ✓ To understand why celebrating diversity can cause happiness
- ✓ To investigate the six major world religions
- ✓ To evaluate if the six major world religions have more similarities or differences

Check back on each task to see how you feel!

Objective 1

Why is diversity important?

Think about the questions below and how they make you feel:

1. How do you feel when you are treated unfairly?
2. How do you feel when you see someone else being treated unfairly?
3. How can we treat others fairly?

CHALLENGE: What can you do to help someone that is being treated unfairly?

Religions around the world believe that it is important to follow the Golden Rule – this means to treat others how you wish to be treated.

Objective 2
